

Joseph Smith

Educator/Researcher/Community Worker

Contact

E-mail

drjosephsmith@gmail.com

LinkedIn

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/joseph-smith-29b9a615b/>

Twitter

<https://twitter.com/DrJosephJSmith>

Summary

Irrespective of its various manifestations, my work reflects a concerted effort to create more innovative, progressive, and principled cultural and institutional spaces by grounding them in the principles of DEI and the importance of psychological safety and well-being. I have done this work in spaces that I believe are instrumental to sustaining a plural, dynamic, and accessible democratic society. Those spaces are as follows:

- Education
- Non-Profit/Charitable Sector
- Corporate
- Government

Work History

2022-01 - Current

Vice Principal

TDSB

Vice Principal at Marc Garneau Collegiate Institute

2020-08 - Current

Consultant

Anchoring Mind Inc.

Anchoring Minds Inc. is a boutique consulting firm created to address the historical and contemporary injustices in areas of need, particularly the corporate sector. Through facilitating workshops, organizational consulting, and 1:1 coaching, we bridge and address the learning curve within corporations to establish more inclusive cultures. Our Anchoring Minds Inc. methodology is rooted in emotional intelligence and psychological safety insofar as both are essential to developing authentic and open spaces of transformation and the deepening of an individual's self-consciousness. By anchoring minds within the corporate space, we believe we can influence and catalyze progressive changes throughout our society given the political and economic position these institutions find themselves in.

We offer three services depending upon a client's needs. Those services are as follows:

- a) Facilitated Anchor Seminars: educational seminars curated around the topics of DEIA
- b) Organizational Consulting: supporting organizations as they think through policy changes, and the development of committees dedicated to sustainably manifesting the principles of DEIA within the culture of their respective organizations
- c) 1:1 Coaching: at the request of a given client, a SME (Subject Matter Expert) can be outsourced through us to provide 1 on 1 coaching to senior leaders around topics of DEIA

Relevant corporate entities Joseph has built educational curricula and trainings for or developed/revised strategic plans for are as follows:

L'Oreal Canada

MLSE

Music Canada

IATSE Local 783

2020-07 - Current ●

Co-Founder

Foundation for Black Communities

The Foundation for Black Communities is Canada's first Black philanthropic institution designed to function as a philanthropic institution exclusively catering to B3 (Black-led, Black-serving, Black-focused) organizations in the following ways:

- 1) Grant-making and mission related investment strategies
- 2) Collaborating with government, private and public stakeholders to support B3 organizations
- 3) Influencing policy in order to foster meaningful relationship

<https://www.forblackcommunities.org>

2017-09 - Current ●

Director, Youth Outreach

Operation Black Vote Canada

As Director of Youth Outreach I liaise with Federal, Provincial, and Municipal government officials on a number of issues pertaining to Black youth specifically. The goal is to increase the representation of Black youth in the political process as well as advocate for policies that enrich the community overall.

2016-01 - Current ●

Co-Founder/Lead Director

Generation Chosen

This is a YOF/OTF funded non-profit organization, dedicated towards enhancing emotional intelligence, demystifying mental health issues, promoting financial literacy and the acquisition life skills, and encouraging civic engagement amongst youth and young adults from underserved communities. The program takes place out of 3 TDSB schools between the hours of 6-9pm every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday for 7 months out of the year. The program caters to youth and young adults ages 15-25, and provides an hour and a half of recreation and topical discussions/activities. The aim of the program is to provide youth with the necessary outlets and support systems to acquire work, advance their education, and help them deal with psycho-social/emotional issues that beset them. (Structure of programming has changed due to COVID-19, however programming persists virtually for 7 months out of the year)

My responsibilities as co-founder involve supporting my staff of 35 in the following areas:

- Facilitating Emotional Intelligence/Financial Literacy/Policy development seminars
- Contracting guest speakers/facilitators
- Accessing job agencies and work related resources to help employ those who are in need of employment
- Organize trips for our service users (basketball games, bowling, museums etc.)
- Connect with parents, and funders who seek to invest in the organization
- Mentor all youth who seek mentorship
- Help youth and young adults access scholarships and post-secondary program applications
- Manage our operational budget
- Design our marketing strategy
- Liaising with school boards and corporations for opportunities, endorsements, and financial supports
- Grant writing

www.generationchosen.ca

2020-07 -
2022-01

Facilitator/Consultant Life Works

As a Facilitator/Consultant for Life Works I am responsible for creating, refining, and delivering the company's anti-racism modules to corporate clients across the globe. Some of my clients include but are not limited to the following: Jamieson Wellness Inc., Bell Canada, Ontario Energy Board, IATSE, Bethesda, Blue Mark, City of Winnipeg, Amex, CMLS, and Financial Regulatory Advisory Board of Canada.

2013-11 -
2022-01

Teacher

Toronto District School Board
High School Contract Teacher with the TDSB

2017-01 -
2019-04

Professor Tyndale University

Taught a first year Literature and Composition and Introduction to Literature course at Tyndale University. Both courses critically analyzed various literary creations (on the basis of their given structures, meanings and implications), while simultaneously fostering a student's capacity to thoughtfully write, read, and articulate subject matter endemic to the course

2015-09 -
2019-04

● Teaching Assistant/Lecturer

York University

Taught in a first-year humanities university course entitled "Existence, Freedom and Meaning: The Idea of the Human in European Thought". The course explores through the critical analysis of texts, both literary and philosophical the religious, social and moral ideals which contribute to the development of human self-consciousness. Through a diligent and militant investigation into the works wrought by particular authors, the course aims to challenge and antagonize unbiased and conventional opinions about God, the self, and the other, in order to ascertain an authentic understanding of all three. In this course, I was responsible for conducting a tutorial once a week for 2 hours.

2017-06 -
2018-01

● Project Coordinator

Environics Research Institute

As a Project Coordinator I was responsible for the following tasks: Website development/maintenance, handling online inquiries made about the Black Experience Project, point of contact for expressed demands made for media, issues, or notifications, development of potential presentations, handling and organizing Narrative Ambassadors, Managing BEP social media (youtube, twitter, facebook, Instagram etc.), liaising between various community, social, and political organizations and the black experience project, editing/curating BEP video and photo content, answering/responding to telephone messages and calls, attending meetings/contending with issues as they surface for BEP, and presenting the research findings to interested organizations and the general public. At Environics Research Institute I am a project coordinator for the Black Experience Project in the GTA. The Black Experience Project is a groundbreaking research study documenting the "lived experience" of individuals across the Greater Toronto Area who self-identify as Black or of African heritage. The study focuses on the contributions, successes, experiences and challenges of the people from this diverse set of communities. The research will provide valuable direction in identifying policies and other initiatives that will contribute to the health and vibrancy of the Black community, and by doing so, the health and vibrancy of the entire GTA community. The study consisted of in-depth one-on-one confidential interviews with a representative sample of more than 1,500 individuals across the GTA.

Awards

2021-04 - Current

2021 BBPA Harry Jerome Decade Leader Award Recipient

Black Business and Professional Association

2019-10 -

Urban Hero Award Recipient (Health)

2019-10

This award was granted to me for my work within the city of Toronto in recognizing my efforts within community to reduce the mental health impacts of systemic classism and anti-black racism through my non-profit organization. Toronto (@torontodotcom)

Publications

1) (Dis)abling the Educator: Attitudes toward Students with Disabilities, Inclusivity and Empowerment

2) The Black Experience Project

3) Unfunded: Black Communities Overlooked by Canadian Philanthropy

4) Marquee Magazine: Fall 2020 "How to Be an Effective Ally"

5) CBC, Toronto Star, CTV, Global News, Breakfast Television: News Television Commentary + News Print Articles

Education

2007-09 -

York University (Honours Bachelor of Arts: Humanities/History)

2011-06

2011-09 -

York University (Bachelor of Education)

2012-06

2012-09 -

York University (Master of Education)

2014-06

