NAVAL JUNIOR RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS (NJROTC) STANDARD RELEASE FORM

Date:
I,, being the legal parent/guardian of, a member of parent/guardian of
I hereby authorize personnel of the Department of Defense, Armed Forces, Public Health Service, or civilian physicians to render such medical and dental care as may be necessary and medically indicated in the case of my son/daughter/ward during his/her period of training, as is deemed necessary by a qualified practitioner.
I understand that care at a military medical facility for non-military dependents will normally be rendered on a temporary (emergency) basis only: if further care is indicated, the patient will be transferred to non-military care as soon as possible. Emergency care provided to cadets who are not military dependents at a military facility may be subjected to reimbursement, and I may be billed for the care provided. For Navy Medical Department facilities, such care is authorized by NAVMEDCOMINST 6320.3B.
My son/daughter/ward has been determined to have the following allergies:
