REVIEWS OF SHELLEM

*Wow! What a concert. Shellem had the attention of everyone in my audience. He was a major hit. His music and comedy was state of the art- Johnny W. (Winder GA)

*We did a special community event and hired Shellem for Entertainment. Everyone fell in love with him. The kids thought he was cool and the older ladies wanted to take him home. He will be a yearly event – Daniel B. (Jenkins, KY)

*Our senior center does 3 big events a year and we hired Shellem as one of those. We sold out the center and the folks loved him. I believe the favorite part was when he picked 2 people from the audience and wrote a song with them....it was hilarious...They ask for him all the time and we even started scheduling him 2 times a year just because of the popularity we have gotten and he sales out every time. (Brenda- Rutherfordton, NC)

*I brought Shellem in for our Apple Festival and immediately he became the headliner. We announced he was coming and I received phone calls like crazy. He performed for an hour and a half and the crowd was huge. Usually, most people walk around for the festival and average about 50 people that sit and listen to the performers. The whole time people kept stopping but I would say that he had at least 250 sitting during the entire performance. I had so many compliments about him and so he is the headliner for both our Apple Blossom and Apple Festival that we hold every year. (Gina K, Taylorsville, NC)

*“Shellem is a state of the art performer that my senior saints could not get enough of. We have had him twice now and we sell tickets as a fundraiser for the group and literally sell out within 24 hours after we announce he is coming! He uses his comedy, the christian country music and the stories he shares to really capture the audience and even at the end of the show, they want more! He is definitely a favorite of my group! (Patti R, Simpsonville, SC)

I own a RV park and we have had many entertainers come in. We got Shellem as a passing through date and I can say I have never had so much fun. We laughed, we cried and the audience wanted more! Next year he is already booked and im almost sold out of spots! He is definitely one performer you do not want to miss!
