

June 2020 Funding Gazette

This month's focus is again on funds that address the issues related to Covid-19 and many funders have switched their priorities to supporting this rather than taking general applications.

This is a fast-changing environment so always check out the websites before applying for any of the funding listed in this edition as things close and re-open depending upon funding available and watch out for deadlines approaching. In the meantime please contact us on 01900 603131 or email cath@cya.org.uk if you think we can help.

Stay safe and keep up the wonderful work being done by staff and volunteers across the sectors here in Cumbria.

Welcome to our June Funding Gazette

The team at Cumbria Youth Alliance are still here to help you secure the funds you need to go forward. We can provide training in successful fundraising to Trusts and Foundations via Zoom or Microsoft Teams and can provide you with lists of funders that match your criteria. This is all free and offered to any organisation here in Cumbria that is supporting children, young people and families. Both our staff offering this service are members of the Institute of Fundraising. In the last 3 months we have assisted groups to bring in over £500,000 of funding from a wide range of trusts and foundations and from lottery. We can help you too! Ring us on 01900 603131 or email cath@cya.org.uk or Juan@cya.org.uk

We anticipate the coming year to be a very challenging year for fundraising so getting organised and into a regular pattern for fundraising is essential if you are going to survive.

This month we have a selection of Covid Response funds and also general funds that are open to applications. Don't forget to look close to home at funders here in Cumbria who have responded so well to ensuring local organisations can survive through this challenging time.

- Cumbria Community Foundation
- Hadfield Charitable Trust
- Francis C Scott Charitable Trust
- Frieda Scott Charitable Trust
- Sir John Fisher Foundation

This is a fast- changing environment so always check out the websites before applying for any of the funding listed below as things close and re-open depending upon funding available and watch out for deadlines approaching. In the meantime please contact us on 01900 603131 or email cath@cya.org.uk if you think we can help. Music For All

UK based community groups and schools who would benefit from a "helping hand" to bring music to their community and fulfil their potential in becoming truly sustainable music programmes.

The funding which is being made available by the charity Music for All, can be put towards musical instrument costs, workshops/training, using music to break down barriers, providing a variety of educational opportunities as well as helping to find ways to integrate many diverse and minority groups positively into society. Grants of up to £2,500 are available, but due to increased demand most awards will be for less than this amount.

UK based community music groups and educational organisations are eligible to apply. Applicants are encouraged to look for other sources of funding to add to the amount needed to deliver the project.

The Masonic Charitable Foundation

Large and Small Grant programmes are currently under review as the organisation examines ways in which it can better target funding to make the greatest possible impact. The new programmes will be open for new applications on Tuesday, 21st August 2018.

The Foundation supports registered charities in England and Wales through the Community Support Grants Scheme which has previously given support for projects that:

- Tackle financial hardship
- Improve the lives of those affected by poor physical and/or mental health and wellbeing
- Provide educational and employment opportunities for disadvantaged children and young people
- Tackle social exclusion and disadvantage.

To date, Charities have been able to apply for large grants of £5,000 and above or for small grants of between £500 – £5,000.

More information on the new grant giving strategy will be available when the programmes go live on Tuesday, 21st August 2018.

Leeds Building Society Charitable Foundation Grant

UK registered charities working to help those at disadvantage in society can apply to the Leeds Building Society Charitable Foundation for support. Grants of between £250 – £1,000 are available to cover the costs involved directly supporting those in need including those with disabilities, affected by homelessness, or with serious health issues.

Donations usually fund items of “capital expenditure” i.e. items must directly help those in need, rather than contributing to the charity’s running costs.

The Foundation accepts applications from UK registered charities with a turnover of less than £1 million per year.

Applications are reviewed every quarter. The next deadline for applications is the 3rd August 2020.

office of the Police Commissioner for Cumbria

Local charities, community and voluntary groups are carrying out a significant amount of valuable work in our communities during this pandemic to ensure that those people who need help are being supported. Once lockdown measures progressively ease and we enter the recovery phase of Covid-19, it is predicted that there will be a surge in demand for these types of services, but many groups are struggling financially as they are unable to carry out their normal fundraising activities.

The Commissioner has introduced the £250,000 Covid-19 Community Recovery Fund made up from the Innovation, Community and Property Funds to provide short term funding quickly to those groups that support objectives from the Police and Crime Plan in order that they may continue helping communities at this difficult time. The funding can also be used for those who are looking at different ways of working due to the Covid-19 restrictions still being in place for many vulnerable groups. Groups are being encouraged to apply as soon as possible for this funding of up to £5,000, (70% on award, 30% on completion) which must be spent by 31st March 2021. Full criteria, application guidance and forms can be found on the PCC's website on the What We Do/Funding page.

Funding for Projects that Support the Education and Development of Children and Young People

Schools, colleges and community groups in England can apply for grants to support the education and development of children and young people through educational, cultural, sporting and other projects. Of particular interests are projects which will help enhance the self-confidence, team working skills and future employability of children and young people. In most cases grants will be made on a relatively small scale. Many grants will be under £2,000, most will be under £5,000 and only in a few cases will grants exceed £10,000. The funding provided by the BlueSpark Foundation and can be for physical assets (such as iPads, sports equipment, or lighting for stage productions) or for services or facilities (such as sports coaching or music or drama tuition) or simply for the provision of experiences (such as theatre visits). These examples are intended to be illustrative and not restrictive as to the funding which BlueSpark may provide to support projects. Applications can be submitted at any time and must be made online on BlueSpark Foundation's standard Application Form.
