

I have never taken such a ribbing. What fun to live here! Tomorrow some Skidmore girls are getting together in Montclair. I hope I can make it too. Saturday Mother and Gram and I are taking a little outing.
Lunch and a drive or something, it ought to be very nice. Sunday we haven't planned anything a good sleep - read the papers and then back to Skidmore I guess. However the faster time flies the better I like it because that means the sooner I can be with you.

It's much warmer here and they have nothing like the snow of Saratoga but it's cold enough to warrant a good shiver anyway.

Tommy it was very nice to hear from you last night. I'm awfully sorry, darling, my special didn't reach you in time but I suppose you have gotten it now.
Tommy it seems so funny to be writing to you again from this little desk with
