

Global Legislators Organisation for a Balanced Environment (GLOBE-EU) and Institute for Environmental Security (IES)

Symposium on Sustainable Development and Security: Challenges and Opportunities

European Parliament ž Brussels ž 31 May 2006

Introduction

16:00-16:25 Opening and Introduction to the Symposium Welcome by Tom SPENCER, Vice-Chairman, Institute for Environmental Security

Presentation of the IES Inventory on Environment and Security Policies and Practices and the programme on Greening European Security by Johannah BERNSTEIN, IES Consultant

The Greening of European Security: Opening Remarks by Anders WIJKMAN, MEP, President of GLOBE-EU

The Challenge

16:25-17:35 Panel Discussion Moderated by Karl VON WOGAU, MEP, Chairman of the EP Defence Sub-Committee

Threat Assessment in the 21st Century and the EU's Response by Robert COOPER, Director General, DGE - External and Politico Military Affairs, Council of the European Union

Redefining Global Security by Chris FLAVIN, President, Worldwatch Institute

Solving Environmental Problems which pose Security Risks in Europe by Frits SCHLINGEMANN, Director and Regional Representative, Regional Office for Europe, United Nations Environment Programme

Towards a more Conflict Sensitive Development Cooperation Policy of the European Union by Michel ROCARD, MEP, Member of the EP Committee on Foreign Affairs and Defence Sub-Committee / Former French Prime Minister (1988-1991)

Discussion / Q&A

17:35-17:50 Coffee Break

The Opportunities

17:50-18:50 Panel Discussion Moderated by Tom SPENCER, Vice-Chairman, Institute for Environmental Security

Sources of Potential Conflict – The pressures on natural resources from Climate Change and their human impact by Nick MABEY, Founder Director, E3G - Third Generation Environmentalism

Conflict Prevention Policies and Practices by Nick GRONO, Vice President (Advocacy and Operations), International Crisis Group

Conflict Resolution and Post Conflict Rehabilitation and Reconstruction Polices and Practices by Pekka HAAVISTO, EU Special Representative for Sudan / Former Chairman, Post Conflict Assessment Unit, UNEP / Former Finnish Minister for Environment and Development (1995-1999)

Challenges for the Finnish Presidency by Satu HASSI, MEP / Member, GLOBE-EU / Board Member, Worldwatch Institute / Former Finnish Minister for Environment (1999-2002)

Discussion / Q&A

Moving Forward

18:50-19:00 Closing: Summary of Discussion / Conclusions and Follow-up