ST FAITHS PARISH CHURCH OF ST MARY AND ST ANDREW

The Church of England and the Methodist Church
Worshipping & Working Together

After a whole year of being in and out of lockdown and living in strange circumstances, we can finally see the light at the end of the tunnel. With Spring all around us and the joy of Easter, as well as having lighter evenings to enjoy, we can look forward to regaining some sort of normal life before too much longer.

We are so fortunate to have vaccines so readily available in this country and I am sure, that like me, you are glad to know you have that added protection against this dreadful virus. In the coming years we will, I don't doubt, learn to live with it, much in the same way as we do the 'flu virus. Meanwhile, please stay vigilant and be cautious as we begin the easing of what I hope will be the final lockdown.

This year Easter falls right at the beginning of April, bringing with it joy, hope and a renewed sense of life. In some ways, as we emerge from lockdown, I guess we are experiencing our own 'mini resurrection'. It feels as though we have been dormant over the past twelve months (although I am very aware that many people have been extremely busy keeping us all going and helping the community to survive). It is my hope that as we begin to emerge from our homes that we too will begin a 'new life'. It wouldn't be right to go back to how things were before, to return to 'normal', whatever that might be. If we have learned anything in this past year, it is that we need to build on our sense of community, to look out for one another and to be more aware of the world around us.

An unbelievable number of telephone calls have been made to folks living alone, and to those who haven't been well, and so on, and the overwhelming sense of thankfulness for our villages and community has been amazing. Certainly, last year the number of people who said that they were thankful for their gardens and for the beauty of the nature surrounding them was incredible. It brought home just how much we can take things for granted when we are busy. Having time to stop and smell the roses, as it were, has given us all a greater appreciation of all we have. It is important that we continue to do that, especially when we start to get out and about more; that we take time to be still and enjoy the beauty and wonder of creation.

The Easter Season continues until May 23rd, when we celebrate the Day of Pentecost. By that stage we will still have some restrictions in place if the government's road map goes to plan. Let's make the most of these last few weeks to work out just what our 'new normal' might look like when it can eventually happen. What have you learned over the last twelve months that you might like to keep in your new schedule? What have you experienced that you would like to leave behind now? What new hobbies or interests would you like to develop?

It is all in your hands. Look ahead with that Easter joy and hope in your hearts, and be thankful.

With my prayers and good wishes

Rosemary Maskell

ST FAITHS GOOD NEIGHBOURS SCHEME (SFGNS)

serving the villages of Horsham and Newton St Faith

First of all an apology for only being able to run a restricted Gppd Neighbpur Scheme during the last few months

As explained earlier we could not risk passing on this dreadful virus amongst ourselves. Many of the volunteers were designated as high risk and were therefore shielding which made it impossible to share a car with anybody else.

As most of us have now had at least one of the Covid vaccinations (hurrah!) it may be possible for us to do a bit of shopping and/or collection of prescriptions etc keeping to strict social distancing rules of course.

As already said it is still not possible for us to give lifts in our cars at the moment.

We do hope you are keeping safe and well. We still must be very careful even though the Corona Virus infection rates are dropping in this area we muat not be too complacent.

If we can possible help we will and you may call us on

Another return to the 'new normal'

As England entered another lockdown back in January, we were quickly thrown into a new way of learning – remotely. Our families and staff coped admirably with the quick change and spent the first two months of the year participating in online live lessons via Teams. Before the children all returned to school, we organised for every family in the Nebula Federation to receive a copy of 'Sometimes I Feel...' by Sarah Maycock. This beautifully illustrated book explores feelings through poetic prose and animal imagery. It offered families a way in to talking about thoughts, feelings and worries before the children were welcomed back. The children all returned on March 8th and we are starting to settle back into our 'new normal'.

Welcome to St Faiths'

I'd like to extend a warm welcome to our new Elm Class teacher – Miss Cunningham. We are fortunate to have Miss Cunningham join our team. She is a well-known teacher across the Nebula schools and has brought a wealth of experience to our school. We have said goodbye to Mrs Landles who has moved on to pastures new.

A Village Thank You

Thank you to those from the community who answered Mrs Hopkins' call for bits and bobs. In the summer term, we are going to be building a bug hotel in our wooded area. I hope to be able to share pictures of its progress when I next write! If you have any free time and would like to help with some gardening work in the coming term, please get in touch via the school office. We greatly appreciate any time or skill you can offer!

Comic Relief

For Red Nose Day this year, the children were invited into school in non-uniform. As we are still working in bubbles and therefore cannot socialise all together, we held a virtual camel race! Children donated 50p to claim a camel and we linked up via Teams to watch the race together. It was an entertaining end to our week.

World Book Day

Every year, we look forward to celebrating World Book Day and this year was no exception. It was a little trickier than usual because some of our friends were learning from home but we made the best of it by making Potato Pals and playing The Masked Reader, with the children guessing which staff member was sharing each part of a story! On their return to school, each child was given a book and a WBD voucher to add to their home reading collections.

We wish you a very happy Easter and look forward to sharing more with you next time!

Miss Wilson
Head of School

The conversion of all the Parish Council footway lighting to the latest LED lanterns has been completed. This will have a long term benefit of reduced energy and maintenance costs. This project has been funded entirely from Community Infrastructure Levy paid to the Council in respect of the Lovell development off Manor Road and has not been taken from the annual Council Tax which the Parish Council decided to leave unchanged for the 2021/22 financial year.

The problems with the surface of the cemetery drive are ongoing and samples of the materials used have been sent for independent analysis and an engineering consultant will be asked to provide the Council with a report.

The Council undertook clearance of ivy from the rear of the Churchyard wall and will keep this under review.

The latest draft of the Greater Norwich Local Plan under consideration shows an area of land off West Lane designated for up to 50 dwellings which is an increase from that previously put forward. The Council has objected to this increase.

The Council has received reports of large quantities of suspicious compost being dumped on the verges of Hog Bog Lane. The authorities have been alerted as this could be drug related.

What is the history of the hot cross bun?

Some believe the hot cross bun originates from St Albans, where Brother Thomas Roccliffe, a 14th Century monk at St Albans Abbey, developed a similar recipe called an 'Alban Bun' and distributed the bun to the local poor on Good Friday, starting in 1361.

In 1592, during the reign of Elizabeth I, it was forbidden to sell hot cross buns and other spiced breads, except at burials, on Good Friday, or at Christmas.

If you broke the decree then you had to give all of your buns to the poor. As a result, hot cross buns were primarily made in home kitchens. Further attempts to suppress the sale of these items took place during the reign of James I of England/James VI of Scotland (1603-1625).

The first definite record of hot cross buns comes from a London street cry: "Good Friday comes this month, the old woman runs. With one or two a penny hot cross buns", which appeared in Poor Robin's Almanack for 1733.

What are the traditions around hot cross buns?

English folklore includes many superstitions surrounding hot cross buns.

One of them says that buns baked and served on Good Friday will not spoil or grow mouldy during the subsequent year. If hung in the kitchen, they are said to protect against fires and ensure that all breads turn out perfectly. The hanging bun is replaced each year.

Another tradition encourages keeping a bun for medicinal purposes. A piece of it given to someone who is ill is said to help them recover. If taken on a sea voyage, hot cross buns are said to protect against shipwreck.

A hot cross bun is a spiced sweet bun made with currants or raisins, marked with a cross on the top, and traditionally eaten on Good Friday. The eating of hot cross buns marks the end of Lent because they are made with dairy products which are forbidden during this period. Plain buns are traditionally eaten hot or toasted during Lent, beginning on Shrove Tuesday and through to Good Friday.

Different parts of the hot cross bun have a certain meaning. The cross represents the crucifixion of Jesus, and the spices inside signify the spices used to embalm him at his burial.

How are hot cross buns made?

The standard hot cross bun recipe consists of strong bread flour, full fat milk, butter and yeast. Sultanas or raisins are then added to the mixture with eggs, cinnamon and even orange zest.

Crosses are traditionally cut into the surface of the bun, however a simple way to make them is to use a paste of water and flour. The buns are then baked in a hot oven for 20 minutes till golden brown and then brushed with a coat of glaze.

They can then be served hot or cold, buttered or dry on Good Friday and throughout Easter.

‘Miles for Momo’ Mandy’s New Year of Fundraising for the Sheep.

Hello everyone, I have started a whole new year of fundraising to help the wonderful small animal sanctuary “The Mirkwood Rest Home for Retired Sheep”.

The last 12 months have been extremely tough for the whole world (I lost both my parents during this time). It has also been incredibly hard for small, good causes who do not have big fundraising sets ups or people employed to help them. I have always chosen to support these smaller places where the money goes directly to the animals and I am extremely proud to be dedicating another year of fundraising to help this fantastic place.

During January I completed a virtual running event called ‘The Frozen Accumulator’. This involved running the same number of miles for the date of the month from home. So, on 1st January I ran one mile, on 2nd I ran two miles, 3rd three miles, 4th four miles and so on right up to the 31st January. It got harder as the month went on, but I completed it all and managed to run it all too, no walking. In total my January running mileage was 507 miles, I was a bit tired afterwards! That was the first event in my fundraising year, although I could not publicise it via this Journal due to lockdown.

All my Spring Races have been cancelled, and my big target race The Tunnel Ultra has been postponed until September. The Tunnel Ultra involves running 200 miles in darkness through the Coomb cycle tunnel in Somerset. It is a mile long tunnel, so we run up & down 200 times! To date only 10 people have ever finished the event and no women. It has an extremely tough time limit of only 55 hours which will allow no time for sleeping or even a short nap. I am going to give it my absolute best shot and any other events I do in the late spring or early summer will all be part of my training plan.

Momo was a lovely gentle sheep who passed away last December at the sheep sanctuary. I witnessed the last 4 months of her life and the incredibly kind care she received via a daily video. It is for Momo and other sheep like her that I am inspired to raise funds for the Mirkwood sanctuary.

I have a Justgivingpage <https://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/mandysheepyfoyster> for anyone who may like to donate online. Otherwise, any kinddonations can be posted through our letterbox at 17, Abbey Road, Horsham St Faith, all contributions will be passed directly onto the sanctuary.

The gentleman who runs it, Andy Bailey, does everything voluntarily so every penny raised will go directly towards paying for feed and essential veterinary care for the sheep.

There is a Facebook page for anyone who would like to see more of what goes on: search for the Mirkwood Rest Home for Retired Sheep.

Thank you everyone for your lovely support and encouragement and I will let you know how my training is going in the next Journal

We have been trying hard to keep the St Faiths Terrain in good condition while we have been waiting for us being allowed to use it again. Hedges have been trimmed, grass has been cut and timber surrounds have been pressure hosed.

We have also been following the government's road map and so, as things stand, we are planning to restart the Norfolk Pétanque County Association League on Thursday 20th May 2021.

The season will be slightly shorter than in previous years but we are looking forward to getting going again after such a long shut down

If you have any questions about the game of Pétanque or the Wanderers Club, please call Michael on Norwich 890710

Please be Careful and Courteous on your Bike

During these difficult weeks of lockdown, we can at least get some exercise outdoors in the form of walking, jogging or cycling near to home around St. Faiths, where we are privileged to have many country lanes and cycle tracks.

My wife and I are members of the Ramblers Association, so we take regular short walks on most days and we are very familiar with the most popular routes, including for example, Bullock Hill and Quaker Lane.

These lanes are only about the width of a car, so when family groups of two or three are walking together, I'm happy to say that social distancing is always in evidence; the vast majority of people walk or jog in single file when passing others going in the opposite direction.

So what about our friends on bikes? Sorry to say, it is only the minority of cyclists who think to give walkers any warning that they will be overtaken from behind. To be fair, most will slow down, but there are some cyclists on racing bikes who overtake the pedestrians at high speed with no warning. This is totally irresponsible and unnecessary. We've witnessed several "near misses" so far and I feel it is only a matter of time before an avoidable accident takes place.

This appeal to cyclists is clear: Please slow down when pedestrians are ahead; remember they can neither see you nor hear you if they are walking ahead in the same direction. Always ring your bell if you have one and if you don't have a bell, then why not (in good time) sound a friendly "Hi, coming through on your left (or right)" and take special care when small children or dogs are part of any walk group. Nobody wants an accident, and just a little courtesy costs nothing.

Thank you, and stay safe.
