Day 1. Sunday 17 Nov: Home – Wagga Wagga (L/D)

Good morning and welcome! We're thrilled to have you on board our journey to the picturesque Hawkesbury River region. Our trip will take us up the Hume Highway, with convenient and relaxing lunch and comfort stops along the way. Once we arrive in Wagga Wagga, we'll be staying in lovely accommodation and enjoying a delectable dinner at the hotel's restaurant. Get ready to create unforgettable memories and have a fantastic adventure!

Overnight: Quality Hotel Wagga Wagga

Day 2. Monday 18 Nov: Wagga Wagga – Wisemans Ferry (B/L/D)

We're hitting the road after breakfast and driving through the picturesque towns of Yass and Mittagong. Our ultimate destination is the award-winning Retreat at Wisemans, located in the heart of the stunning Wisemans Ferry. This 4-star retreat boasts rooms with incredible views of the golf course, the pool area, or the charming village. After checking in and a little time to relax, we'll head over to the Bowling Club for a delicious two-course dinner. But that's not all - we're in for a real treat! A local historian from the Dharug and Lower Hawkesbury Historical Society will join us to share the fascinating story of the area and the world heritage-listed Convict Trail. This will set the stage for the adventures that await us the next day.

Overnight: Retreat at Wisemans

Day 3. Tuesday 19 Nov: Experiencing Early Settlement History (B/L/D)

We have a fantastic day planned for you. Let's start with a delicious breakfast before crossing the river on the ferry to the World Heritage Listed Convict Trail. Here we'll be amazed by the impressive workmanship of the convicts that helped shape Australia's history. Our friendly local guide from the Historical Society will give us insights into the struggles and hardships that the convicts had to endure during the road building. Next, we'll hop on the coach and head to Wombat Cafe for a scrumptious lunch. After lunch, we're off to visit Ferry Artist Gallery and Cobham Hall at Wiseman's Ferry. Finally, we'll end the day on a high note with a lovely dinner at the Wisemans Ferry Hotel.

Overnight: Retreat at Wisemans

Day 4. Wednesday 20 Nov: Riverboat Postman

(B/L/D)

We start the day with a delicious breakfast before we set off for our adventure in Brooklyn on Broken Bay. We'll be taking a scenic 40km journey up the Hawkesbury River estuary on the Riverboat Postman, Australia's last operating mail boat. As we make our way upstream, we'll be entertained by stories of the river and soak up the stunning views. After a morning tea and lunch onboard, we'll head to Canoelands Orchard for a "Technical Bee Tour" where we'll learn all about bees, honey, and other handmade products. Here we'll explore the orchard and discover the secrets of beekeeping. We finish our day with a delicious 2-course dinner at the Bowling Club, where we can relax and reflect on the amazing experiences we've had throughout the day.

Overnight: Retreat at Wisemans

Day 5. Thursday 21 November: Windsor & Ebenezer

(B/L/D)

After another wonderful breakfast, we head towards Windsor for an unforgettable experience on the Hawkesbury Paddlewheeler. Our 3.5-hour cruise features Morning Tea & Lunch, and Ian's expert commentary will provide you with an informative and enjoyable experience. Following this, we visit the oldest existing church in Australia, Ebenezer Church (circa 1809). The cemetery, schoolmaster's house, and Church Shop are all waiting to be explored. After this, we will return to the Retreat at Wisemans, where you can relax before indulging in another mouth-watering 2-course dinner.

Overnight: Retreat at Wisemans

Day 6. Friday 22 November: Hawkesbury to Albury

(B/L/D)

After a delightful breakfast, we will commence our journey back home, passing through some charming towns along the way. Our route will take us through the picturesque towns of Bundanoon, Yass, and Holbrook, before culminating in the lively city of Albury. To end the day on a high note, we will be indulging in a delectable dinner at the motel restaurant.

Overnight: Quality Resort Siesta, Albury

Day 7. Saturday 23 November: Albury to Home

(B/L)

Starting today with a sumptuous breakfast and a scenic drive south through Bonnie Doon towards Healesville. Here we will enjoy a delightful farewell lunch together before our leisurely and comfortable drive home. As always, our expert chauffeurs will take us straight to our door. All part of Daytripper Tours' friendly service.
