- (6). Life Members
- (a). Nomination process and criteria for Honorary Life Membership

The committee may accept one or in exception circumstances more than one nomination for Honorary Life Membership. Nominations for Honorary Life Membership of the Club may be submitted in writing to the Committee by 30th of September each year and be signed by two financial members. Members nominating each candidate should ensure that the candidate fits the criteria for Honorary Life Membership – that is:

 - i). Current Membership of the Club; Long term commitment to the Club as evidenced by at least 20 years continuous membership or 25 years broken membership of, and active participation in, the Club.
 - ii). Executive positions on Board or sub-committees each year in these positions equals three years of service.
 - iii). Other positions of Board or Sub-committees each year in these positions equals two years of service.
 - iv). Substantial contribution to specific aspects of the Club functioning
 - v). Members nominating a candidate should provide a profile of the candidate that provides grounds for the nomination, pertinent information would include but not necessary be limited to the following
 - (i) The candidate's active contribution to the functioning of the Club
 - (ii) The candidate's length of membership of the Club
 - (iii) The candidate's overall contribution to sport in the Broken Hill region
 - (b). The Committee will determine whether:
 - i). The nomination merits the Committee recommending the nomination to the Members present at the next Annual General Meeting of the Club.
 - ii). If the Committee determines that the nomination is to be recommended to the next Annual General Meeting of the Club it shall notify:
 - (i) The Member nominated and
 - (ii) Members nominating of its intention.
 - iii). If the Committee determines that the nomination does not merit nomination or does not meet the criteria it shall not be required to give any such reason for the rejection of the nomination.

- (c). A person shall not be elected to Honorary Life Membership unless at least fourteen days written notice of intention to elect that person as an Honorary Life Member of the Club shall be given with notice of the Annual General Meeting at which it is proposed to elect such person.
- (d). A person shall only be elected a Honorary Life Member of the Club by four fifths of a majority of those Members present and entitled to vote at an Annual General Meeting of the Club.
- (e). A person elected as a Honorary Life Member shall be relieved from payment of any subscription or levies but shall have all the rights and privileges of a Full Member.
- (f). Playing Life Members will have to pay the annual affiliation and registrations fees as required by the Committee.

(7). Honorary Members

- (a). A person shall not be admitted as an Honorary Member of the Club unless that person is admitted in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution and has the qualifications, as specified in this Constitution, requisite and appropriate in relation to the purposes of the Club for Honorary Membership of the Club.
- (b). The following persons may be made Honorary Members of the Club in accordance with procedures established by the Committee from time to time:
 - i). the patron or patrons for the time being of the Club;
 - ii). any prominent citizen or local dignitary visiting the Club;
- (c). Honorary Members shall be entitled to only the social facilities and amenities of the Club and shall not be entitled to attend or vote at any meeting of the Club, nominate or be elected to the Committee or any office in the Club or participate in the management, business and affairs of the Club in any way.
- (d). When Honorary Membership is conferred on any person the following particulars shall be entered in the Club's Register of Honorary Members:
 - i). the name in full of the Honorary Member;
 - ii). the residential address of the Honorary Member;
 - iii). the date on which Honorary Membership is conferred;
 - iv). the date on which Honorary Membership is to cease.

(8). Provisional Members

- (a). Any person who has lodged with the Secretary a nomination form duly completed in accordance with this Constitution seeking Membership of the Club and pays to the Club the subscription appropriate to the class of Membership referred to in the nomination form may be granted provisional Membership of the Club while awaiting the decision of the Committee in relation to that person's application for full Membership of the Club.
- (b). Should a person who is admitted as a provisional Member not be elected to full Membership of the Club within six weeks from the date of lodging the nomination form with the Secretary or should that application for full Membership be refused (whichever is the sooner) that person shall cease to be a provisional Member of the Club and the subscription submitted with the nomination shall be forthwith returned.
- (c). A Provisional Member shall be entitled only to the sporting and social facilities and amenities of the Club applicable to the class of Membership which that Provisional Member is seeking to join and shall not be entitled to attend or vote at any meeting of the Club, nominate for or be elected to the Committee or any office of the Club or to participate in the management, business and affairs of the Club in any way.

(9). Country Members

- (a). The Committee may at its discretion admit as a Country Member of the Club a person whose usual residential address is not within a one hundred (100) kilometre radius of the City of Broken Hill. A Country Member shall have the same rights as a Provisional Member.
- (b). No person shall be admitted as a Country Member who resides within the municipal boundaries of the City of Broken Hill for a period totalling more than thirty days in any one year.
- (c). The Committee may without assigning any reason therefore serve notice on a Country Member requiring that Member to transfer his Membership to Full Membership and to pay Full Membership subscription for that year less the amount already paid by the Member as Country Membership fees.
- (d). A Country Member upon whom such notice has been served shall within forty five days of the date of service of notice advise the Secretary in writing of his acceptance of Full Membership and pay the required fee upon which he shall be recorded on the register as a Full Member.
- (e). A Country Member can participate in but cannot qualify for recognition in Monthly Medals and Club Championships
 - i). The Country Member can only participate in Club competitions if the member has an Australian Golf Handicap from another affiliated Golf Club.
- (f). A Country Member can play in 12 competition games only per year

6. Application for Membership

 - (e). As soon as practicable after receiving a nomination for membership, the secretary must refer the nomination to the committee which is to determine whether to approve or to reject the nomination.
 - (f). As soon as practicable after the committee makes that determination, the secretary must:
 - i). notify the nominee, in writing, (including by email or other electronic means) that the committee approved or rejected the nomination (whichever is applicable), and
 - ii). if the committee approved the nomination, request the nominee to pay (within the period of 28 days after receipt by the nominee of the notification) any further sum payable under this constitution by a member as entrance fee and annual subscription.
- (2). The secretary must, on payment by the nominee of the amounts referred to in sub clause (b) or (c) (ii) within the period referred to in that provision, enter or cause to be entered the nominee's name in the register of members and, on the name being so entered, the nominee becomes a member of the Club.

- (3). A person shall not be admitted as a Member of the Club other than as an Honorary Member or Provisional Member unless that person is elected to Membership at a meeting of the Committee of the Club or a duly appointed election committee of the Club the names of whose Members present and voting at that meeting are recorded by the Secretary of the Club.
- (4). Should a person who has been previously expelled from the Club, make application for Membership of the Club then that application must be considered by the Full Committee.
- (5). The Committee and any election committee may reject any application for Membership without assigning any reason for such rejection.
 - (a). notify the nominee, in writing, (including by email or other electronic means) that the committee rejected the nomination and
 - (b). return any subscription paid by the Member to the Member
- (6). In respect of every proposal for election to Membership of the Club there shall be completed a nomination form which shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as are from time to time prescribed by the Committee, including the full name, address occupation and date of birth of the candidate and a statement that the candidate, if admitted, will be bound by the Constitution. The form will be signed by the candidate.
- (7). The nomination form together with the Membership entrance fee (if any) and the first annual subscription shall be deposited at the office
- (8). Upon a person being elected to Membership the Secretary shall cause a notice of such election to be promptly forwarded or posted to such person.
- (9). A copy of the Constitution shall be supplied to a Member on request being made to the Secretary of the Club and, (if demanded by the Secretary) on payment of any fee that may be prescribed by the Association Incorporations Act.

7. Cessation and Resignation of Membership

- (1). A person ceases to be a member of the Club if the person:
 - (a). the Member at any time may give notice in writing (including by email or other electronic means) to the Secretary to resign from Membership of the Club and such resignation shall take effect from the date on which it is received by the Secretary, or
 - (b). fails to pay the subscription of the Member, within a period of thirty-one (31) days from the date upon which it shall fall due for payment
 - i). the Secretary shall give to the Member in default seven days' written notice (including by email or other electronic means) within which such subscription must be paid and
 - ii). if the same shall not have been paid within the time limited by such notice the member is expelled from the Club
 - (c). is expelled from the Club under Clause 13, or
 - (d). dies
- (2). Expelled or defaulting members shall be
 - (a). debarred from all privileges of Membership
 - (b). disqualified by the Committee from all Club competitions in which he or she is participating, and
 - (c). forfeit any trophies or trophy credits accumulated under their name
- (3). If a member of the Club ceases to be a member under subclauses (a, b, c, or d), and in every other case where a member ceases to hold membership, the secretary must make an appropriate entry in the register of members recording the date on which the member ceased to be a member.

8. Transfer of Membership Entitlements

- (1). A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a member of the Club:
 - (a). is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person, and
 - (b). terminates on cessation of the person's membership.
- (2). The Committee, at its discretion, may on the written application (including by email or other electronic means) of a Member transfer that Member from any class of Membership to other class of Membership.
 - (a). Any Member so transferred will be required to pay the difference between the entrance and/or annual subscription applicable for his or her present Membership and the entrance and/or annual subscription applicable to the class of Membership to which he or she desires to be transferred.
 - (b). Any Member so transferred to a lower class of Membership will not be refunded any difference between the entrance and/or annual subscription applicable for his or her present Membership and the entrance and/or annual subscription applicable to the class of Membership to which he or she desires to be transferred.
- (3). The Committee, at its discretion, may on the written application (including by email or other electronic means) of a Junior Member transfer that Member from the class of Junior Membership to the class of Junior with handicap Membership.
 - (a). That the transfer application must be approved by the Junior Golf Co-ordinator or the authority in charge of Junior Golf at the Club
 - (b). Any Junior so transferred will be required to pay the difference between the entrance and/or annual subscription applicable for his or her present Membership and the entrance and/or annual subscription applicable to the class of Membership to which he or she desires to be transferred.

9. Register of Members

- (1). The secretary of the Club must establish and maintain a register of members of the Club (whether in written or electronic form) specifying the name and postal or residential address of each person who is a member of the Club together with the date on which the person became a member.
- (2). The register of members must be kept in New South Wales:
 - (a). at the main premises of the Club, or
 - (b). if the Club has no premises, at the Club's official address.
- (3). The register of members must be open for inspection, free of charge, by any member of the Club at any reasonable hour.
- (4). A member of the Club may obtain a copy of any part of the register on payment of a fee of not more than $1 for each page copied.
- (5). If a member requests that any information contained on the register about the member (other than the member's name) not be available for inspection, that information must not be made available for inspection.
- (6). Members shall advise the Secretary of the Club in writing (including by email or other electronic means) of any change in their address.
- (7). A member must not use information about a person obtained from the register to contact or send material to the person, other than for:
 - (a). the purposes of sending the person a newsletter, a notice in respect of a meeting or other event relating to the Club or other material relating to the Club, or
 - (b). any other purpose necessary to comply with a requirement of the Act or the Regulation.
- (8). If the register of members is kept in electronic form;

- (a). It must be convertible into hard copy, and
- (b). The requirements in subclauses (2) and (3) apply as if a reference to the register of members a reference to a current hard copy of the register of members is

 - (a). except as provided by subclauses (b) and (c), before 1 July in each calendar year
 - (b). However, in the event of the subscription being payable monthly the first payment is payable on 1st July and additional amounts are payable on the 1st of each month of the rest of the financial year.
 - i). Pay, in advance, on 1st July the first instalment, together with annual affiliation, registration fees and any other as determined by the committee
 - ii). Pay, in advance, on the 1st of each month subscription instalments and other fees as determined by the committee
 - (c). If the member becomes a member on or after 1 July in any calendar year and before 1 July in each succeeding calendar year the amount payable will be
 - i). calculated on a fixed and pro rata basis for the remaining term of the financial year for the class of membership the person has been elected to as determined by the committee
 - ii). in the event of the subscription being payable monthly the first payment is payable on application for membership and additional amounts are payable on the 1st of each month of the rest of the financial year as determined by the committee.
- (3). On or before the first day of May in each year the Committee shall publish the annual subscriptions and entrance fees it proposes to levy for the next financial year of the Club.

11. Members' Liabilities

- (1). The liability of a member of the Club to contribute towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the Club or the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the Club is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid by the member in respect of membership of the Club as required by Clause 10.

12. Resolution of Disputes

- (1). A dispute between a member and another member (in their capacity as members) of the Club, or a dispute between a member or members and the Club, are to be referred to a community justice centre for mediation under the Community Justice Centres Act 1983.
- (2). If a dispute is not resolved by mediation within 3 months of the referral to a community justice centre, the dispute is to be referred to arbitration.
- (3). The Commercial Arbitration Act 1984 applies to any such dispute referred to arbitration.

13. Disciplining of members

- (1). A complaint may be made to the committee by any person that a member of the Club:
 - a). has refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of this constitution, or
 - b). has wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Club or
 - c). conduct which is unbecoming of a Member or

- d). conduct which shall render the Member unfit for Membership
- (2). The committee may refuse to deal with a complaint if it considers the complaint to be trivial or vexatious in nature.
- (3). If the committee decides to deal with the complaint, the committee:
 - a). must cause notice of the complaint to be served on the member concerned, and
 - b). must give the member at least 14 days from the time the notice is served within which to make submissions to the committee in connection with the complaint, and
 - c). must allow the member to appear before the committee for the purposes of answering the complaint
 - d). must take into consideration any written submissions made by the member in connection with the complaint.
- (4). The committee may, by resolution, expel the member from the Club or suspend the member for such period as it considers fit, from membership of the Club if, after considering the complaint and any submissions made in connection with the complaint, it is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved and the expulsion or suspension is warranted in the circumstances provided that:
 - a). No motion to expel the member from the Club or suspend the member unless two-thirds majority of the Members of the Committee present in person vote for such motion by way of a secret ballot
- (5). If the committee expels or suspends a member, the secretary must, within 7 days after the action is taken, cause written (including by email or other electronic means) notice to be given to the member of the action taken.
- (6). Any decision of the Committee on such hearing shall be final and the Committee shall not be required to assign any reason for its decision.
- (7). In the event that a notice of complaint is issued to a Member pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (3) of this Clause 13
 - a). the Committee shall have power to suspend that Member from all privileges of the Club until the complaint is heard and determined or
 - b). for five weeks whichever is the sooner.
 - c). such suspension shall be notified in writing to the Member concerned.
- (8). The expulsion or suspension does not take effect:
 - a). until the expiration of the period within which the member is entitled to appeal against the resolution concerned, or
 - b). if within that period the member exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the Club confirms the resolution under clause 12, whichever is the later.

Part 3 - The Committee

14. Powers of the Committee

- (1).
