

Marriage of JM Ainscough and Margaret Almond at Standish Hall - 1908

Behind the bride is her younger sister Alice Phillips and her husband Horace.

To the bride's right is William Almond (Uncle Bill) and behind him Bert Almond, (the younger JB Almond.)

To my grandfather's left is May Almond, my grandmother's youngest sister, who was briefly married to Rector Hutton!

On her left is JB Almond and his third wife, mother of the 5 younger siblings.

Seated at the front are the twins Leonard and Maskell, who at the time were at Keswick school - previously the home of Robert Southey and his family.

The couple on the far left are family friends, Mr and Mrs Dean, and a bridesmaid, whose name my mother did not know.

Next to Bert Almond is the Rev. T. Gleave.
