

ASTELL WYDN

Whiteboard

lovinglivingcornish, dalathoryon lovinglivingcornish, beginners

De Lun 17 Hedra 2022

Monday 17 October 2022

Mos dhe Folen Naw in Lyver an Cors mar pleg. Lesson Dew.

Please go to Page Nine in the Coursebook. Lesson Two.

Dâ lowr.

Okay (literally good enough)

Geryow rag comendyans crev:

Words for strong approval:

spladn literally 'splendid', bryntyn literally 'noble', rial literally 'royal'

Ger rag an contrary opynyon:

Word for the opposite opinion:

uthyk literally 'dreadful'

Geryow rag brâster:

Words for size:

bian 'small', brâs 'big'

Geryow rag colours:

Words for colours:

blou 'blue', du 'black', gwer 'green', gwydn 'white', melen 'yellow', rudh 'red'

Geryow rag bestas:

Words for animals:

buwgh f cow, cath f cat, cocodryl m crocodile, conyn m rabbit, davas f sheep, gavar f goat, goodh f goose, hoos m duck, ky m dog, margh m horse, olyfans m elephant, porhel m pig, pysk m fish, qwylykyn m frog, sarf f snake

Let's quietly forget about chîcok 'house martin' – it's a very rare word!

Ken geryow vas:

Other useful words:

otta 'here is/are', 'there is/are' (drawing attention to something, near or far)

Usually shortened to ot when the next word is an 'the'

ot obma 'here is/are' (drawing attention to something very close, often in your own hand) ha 'with; and'

Usually hag when the next word begins with a vowel