Started on Tuesday 19th April, and it will take FIJ Building Service Ltd 26 weeks to finish.

Weeks 13: After a six week stoppage the builders returned to site on Tuesday 19th July to progress the foundation works. On Wednesday they came across several new problems in the area that is going to be the new Sacristy. They are awaiting to hear from the Structural Surveyor, who is on his annual leave until Monday 25th July.

World Day Against Trafficking in Persons 2022

The 30th July is an annual event to raise awareness and increase prevention of people trafficking and modern day slavery. Trafficking in persons is a serious crime and a violation of human rights.

Thousands of men, women and children fall victim to traffickers every year. This often happens as a result of them being misled to believe that they are being taken to work that will make their family better off, or through force or being kidnapped. Victims lose their rights and are forced to work, often doing hard labour or prostitution, but receive no payment. Additionally, they also frequently have their documents taken from them and are threatened with punishment if they should try to escape.

For more information about trafficking and modern day slavery, and how to notice signs that this may be taking place please visit: <https://www.unseenuk.org/about-modern-slavery/>

Notification received from the Safeguarding Office of the Diocese of Plymouth

Our parishioners Deborah Stuart and Paul Doyle have been formally appointed for the ministry of Parish Safeguarding Representatives for a further period of three years. Congratulations and thank you for accepting it!

Diocesan Administrator appointed

Now that Archbishop Mark has begun his new ministry in the Archdiocese of Cardiff and the Diocese of Menevia, a Diocesan Administrator has been appointed by the Chapter of Canons of our Cathedral to oversee the day to day affairs and operations of the Diocese of Plymouth. Canon Paul Cummins, who has been elected to this position, has written a letter to the diocese which will be read at all Masses this weekend. Please keep Canon Paul in your prayers, as well as those who will be involved in the selection of a new bishop. We hope that the process will not take too long.

Prayer for Ukraine: Loving God, we pray for the people of Ukraine, for all those suffering or afraid, that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices. We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need. May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world. Amen
