Including Eileen Patrick who has been in hospital and has requested our prayers.

The Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales

Have granted permission for the distribution of Holy Communion from the chalice to be resumed from Maundy Thursday onwards. It is each individual's choice whether to receive from the chalice or not; the Church teaches that the body, blood, soul and divinity of Christ is present in both the host and the precious blood, so there is no obligation to receive from the chalice. We cannot offer Communion from the chalice at St Anthony's because we haven't got any Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist yet. We'll have to wait until it's practical to comply.
