Paul Madden's email received during the week

"Dear Father Frank,

Thank you so much for your kind words about Dad at Mass on Sunday and for including my email in the bulletin. It was a very special occasion for him being at St Antony's for the last time before moving away. That church has so many memories for him over the years, including his marriage 71 years ago. It's sad that at 94, most of the fellow parishioners he knew have already passed on. But he really appreciated the send off you gave him. Thanks for asking me to read the lesson too. It brought back a lot of memories, as I used to read the lesson there every single Sunday from the age of about 12 until I went away to university. Dad is settling in well to his new care home. It's just five minutes from our house, so it's very convenient. Best wishes"

Paul Madden.
