President's Message

Dear Members,

I truly hope that you had a Merry Christmas and that the coming year will be much better for us all.

A couple of weeks ago you were each sent an email regarding the BAS fees for 2021 being waved for our current 2020 paid members. We (the BAS Committee) felt that since we only had a few meetings at the beginning of the year, and hence we had less expences, that we should not ask for membership dues this year. But as mentioned in the email, we do still have some fixed expences and so we ask that if you are able (and only if you are able) that you might contribute a donation to help keep our wonderful art group going.

This being an unusual year, we ask that this month you not only vote (by email) for the January Popular Choice winner but also for the 2020 Artist of the Year. Please see the two seperate contests on the following pages and send in your votes for each competition. The more votes, the better so please don't dismiss voting.

Best wishes to you all for good health & a Happy New Year!

Diana

A reminder that in these times of Covid-19, while we are not able to gather for our monthly Demonstration/Competition meetings, we are attempting to at least keep our BAS "Artist of the Year" competition going. So, enjoy the next few pages of numbered paintings and then please promptly send in your vote for your favorite to the email address: dayglynn@aol.com

The painting that receives the most votes will be awarded the monthly Popular Choice ribbon and will then be eligible to enter in the competition for "Artist of the Year" in the January Palette.

ARTIST OF THE YEAR COMPETITION

Normally our Artist of the Year competition is picked by a non-member, guest judge at the Holiday Luncheon in December, but this being an abnormal year, we (the BAS members) will vote for our favorite. The member who's painting gets the most votes will be our new 2020 Artist of the Year. View the entries (on the next few pages) which include First Place ribbon winners (from Dec. thru Mar.) & the Popular Choice Winners throughout the year.
