Happy New Year!

Don't forget to make some resolutions you'll never keep and put up a new wall calendar you'll never look at.

No BAS General or Committee meetings until further notice.

President's Message

Dear Members,

Here's hoping that you all had a nice Holiday Season even if it was a quiet one, as was mine. I myself am kind of happy to see the end 2021 and am looking forward to 2022 in hopes that it will bring better times for us all.

Although things are a little better now that many of us are vaccinated and we are beginning to gather a bit more, we still need to worry about larger gatherings, so until we are sure that it's safe, we will still hold off on getting back to our BAS monthly meetings. And since we are not paying for a monthly meeting space or demo artist, we will not yet be charging for membership dues. Of course we will gladly accept donations to help with things like keeping our web-site going, etc.

I really want to impress upon you the importance of participating in voting for our monthly Popular Choice competitions and also the Artist of the Year competition, by sending in your votes. It is important because it's at least one way to keep wonderful art group going, until we can meet in person again.

Lastly, while viewing the eligibal paintings for the Artist of the Year competition I am sadly reminded of the BAS members that we lost this year, let us all take a moment to remember them....our dear friends and fellow artists, George Dumandan, Anastasia Cole and Pat McMorrow. May they be resting in peace and happily painting together.

Happy New Year to you all.

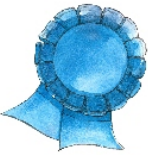

Diana

A reminder that in these times of Covid-19, while we are not able to gather for our monthly Demo/Competition meetings, we are attempting to keep our BAS "Artist of the Year" competition going. So, enjoy the next few pages of numbered paintings & then please promptly email a vote for your favorite to: dayglynn@aol.com The painting with the most votes will be awarded the monthly Popular Choice ribbon & will then be eligible to enter in the competition for the "2021 Artist of the Year".

Artist of the Year

Be sure to view the 13 Popular Choice winning paintings from 2021 and send in a vote for your favorite to: dayglynn@aol.com. The winning artist will be awarded Burlingame Art Society's "2021 Artist of the Year". And be sure to check next month's Palette (February) to see who the winner is.
