

Journey To Freedom - Sponsor Application December 14th, 2020 - February 28th, 2021 Harriet Tubman Returns To Peekskill

The Peekskill Business Improvement District is bringing Wesley Wofford's statue, Harriet Tubman – The Journey to Freedom to downtown Peekskill. In light of recent events like the pandemic and the racial equality movement, the presence of the statue in our downtown takes on even more meaning. Positioned outdoors, admirers can still see the statue in a socially distanced manner while celebrating our community's rich history and cultural diversity from mid-December through Black History Month in 2021.

Join us in welcoming this nationally renowned sculpture, help us with your sponsorship of this historic event.

Sponsorships go towards placement of the statue, care of the statue, and programs (to be announced) to elaborate on black history education.
