Each issue focuses on a single theme, and explores that theme through essays, art, photography, and recipes. Lucky Peach 12 is all about food from littoral realms -- the spaces where land meets sea. We dive for abalone and gather seaweed off the California coast; we harvest honey in the Bangladeshi Sundarabans; we go behind the scenes at a shrimp farm in Indonesia, and spend a Sunday at the cockle sheds in Leigh-on-Sea. We share recipes from Vietnam and Portugal and the Oregon coast--we aren't shellfish. Also in this issue: a special, detachable sixteen-page Beach Reads comic book to take on your seaside jaunts, featuring comics by Jason Jgel, Tony Millionaire, and more, because it's summertime, and the reading is easy. Its aesthetic is a graphic pulp pastiche of drawings, photo essays and kitsch—you'll discover traces of comic books, handwritten script and recipes presented in science-lab format. Anthony Bourdain writes a generation of beach-life in the course of 2 pages. How does he do that? It's like a Bruce Springsteen song. Lisa Hanawalt swims with otters. Who wouldn't want to do that!?! Oral history from a fisherman from the Gaza Strip. Breece DJ Pancake's short story "Trilobites" which feels like a novel in 8 pages. There's tons more featuring many of your favorite sea delights, but I'll let you discover the rest of the surprises. Sep 22, waits4thebus rated it really liked it Shelves: cook-books , food-writing.
