Audience reaction played a major role in the skit. Positive reaction would prompt disbelief from Carnac, stating the ease at which he could make people laugh, such as "This audience would laugh at Dinah Shore backing into a meat thermometer. Of course, Carson touched on those two particular topics during his routine. However, it was his allusion to the old college cheer that gained him the loudest and longest laugh of the night. The answer: "Sis boom bah. The exchange sent Carson, sidekick Ed McMahon, and the entire audience into a fit of hysteria. McMahon's usual canned laugh was absent. In its place, a genuine, hearty belly laugh. The usually buttoned-up Carson needed almost one minute seconds to be precise--to regain his composure. The audience didn't help either of them, as their laughter and applause kept Carson and McMahon rolling. According to McMahon, Carson warned him that one of the jokes in the "Carnac" bit could bring the show to a halt. Here's how McMahon remembered it. In , Carson ranked "Sis boom bah" as the second-best moment in his year run as host of the Tonight Show. Only the Ed Ames tomahawk incident ranked higher.

A Carson memory, which I think shows one of the reasons he was so funny: He and Ed are doing a routine one night, maybe about obscure words, anyway Johnny mentions the nation with the lowest per capita IQ. It is the island nation of Schiffer. And oddly enough, he continues, that tiny island has contributed to the American language. Ed asks "How? I rolled on the floor at that one. Of course it might not be as funny today since you can use foul language on broadcast television. But I still think that is a classic. Peaceboy: My all time favorite. A chimp, A wimp, A whitehead and a crackhead Q. Codenames given out to the Bushes at their family reunion. Social Security, Shakes and Sandwiches Q. Liberal ideas that Ann Coulter avoids at all costs A. A stain, a brain and a plan to invade Iraq Q. Name three things that our last elected President, our current one and his new advisors wish would have never been lost forever.

They didn't include the question, but I think it would have involved a hairy upper lip type of joke. I swear to God, I saw a "Tonight Show" where Johnny and this old football player used the word "shiat" without the "a", thank you Fark filter about a hundred times. The guest was this old football player who played in the forties and fifties, and he was describing some of the horrible fields that they used to play on. And one field had apparently been used by a circus recently. So, the football player said, there was elephant shiat all over the field. Elephant shiat? Yeah, shiat everywhere.

So what did you do with the shiat? We just started flinging the shiat at each other And this one went on for ten minutes. As a twelve year old in pajamas, I was dying They didn't bleep it or anything. Ted Koppel would have to say "bullshiat" eighty more times to get a reaction out of me. Does anybody, anybody, also remember this? Finger Bowl A. Name two things a Polish lesbian might do on a Tuesday night.

Xj14y, good memory, I forgot that part. Some things people don't remember or know, unless they've been brought up in one of these threads He was a sharp dude with a wide range of interests. The other thing was, up until he finally wised up or perhaps the insurance guy said no more ephin way, he did alot of his own crazy-ass stunts, diving off of things or whatever. It seemed pretty dangerous at times. Anything for his art. I remember another old Carnac line: May the fleas of a thousand camels infest your armpits. He's still farking hilarious, IMO. Carson, who on national TV says he would give a years salary for a peek at Dolly Parton's t! Shouldn't even be mentioned on the some page as Johnny" A: Mygoditsbob Q: Who has said the most ignorant thing in this thread? I believe The Family Channel was once owned by A.. And finally, democracy is the eagle on the back of a dollar bill, with 13 arrows in one claw, 13 leaves on a branch, 13 tail feathers, and 13 stars over its head -- this signifies that when the white man came to this country, it was bad luck for the Indians, bad luck for the trees, bad luck for the wildlife, and lights out for the American eagle.
