

The Kennel Club of Jersey Winter Championship Results 2023

Held on 25.03.2023.

How lucky were Jacqui and I to have the pleasure of being in Jersey with super dogs, marvellous hospitality from the fabulous committee and a first class hotel to boot!

I must mention Artur, my steward. His first time officiating in this capacity. He had the ring flowing smoothly. What a star. Thank you to all.

BIS, Handling, Group Results, AV & Stakes Classes

Best in Show - Judge Mrs Patsy Hollings

BEST IN SHOW: Beaulamey Show Me The Money For Tarabish - Chihuahua Smooth Coat owned by Miss C MacKay. This junior dog, presented a balanced picture with good deportment. He never put a foot wrong and was completely unfazed by his competitors. Whilst refined, he still displayed masculinity. Rounded skull, with large mobile ears used to advantage. Bright, round dark eyes. Stand squarely on fine boned legs. Super body and brisk movement retaining the solid outline.

RESERVE BEST IN SHOW: Mrs J Le Claire - Fontanarossa Equator: Great Dane. Well, from one extreme to the other! Again, whilst still a junior, she has the most beautiful stance and firmness of shape. Powerful feminine with elegance. Stately outlook from her clean head, which has length and strength in muzzle. The arched neck flows smoothly through well laid shoulder, neat elbows and straight front legs. Level firm back to developed loin and width to rump. Really muscular quarters and strong hocks.

THIRD BEST IN SHOW: Petwalk Inspirational (Owned by Mr P Walker & Mrs K Journeaux) – Lhasa Apso. Immaculate presentation on this young well developed bitch of super proportions and therefore typical in balance and type. Has that 'snooty' expression, from her clean dark eye, set in her lovely head piece. Sound in bone, legs and feet both ends. Long well covered ribs to short muscular loin, providing firm back. Full coat tops a super picture.

FOURTH BEST IN SHOW: Miss B Beaumont & Miss H Bisson - Woodhenge Stars In Your Eyes For Beaulamey - Welsh Corgi Pembroke. Impressive youngster, just over a year old and has an air of quality and is very typical throughout. Low set with clearance. Gorgeous head, carriage to neck and presented in full bloom of full coat. She is active with good footfall and a confident air.

FIFTH BEST IN SHOW: Miss C White - Granrose Blue Topaz - Spaniel (Cocker). Gleaming coat, tops a sound, fit feminine bitch with a true cocker attitude. She never stops wagging her well placed tail. Lovely clean head, correct skull, low ear and bright outlook from the clean eye. Big ribs, firm loin and width to rump. Presented in prime order .Very smart.

SIXTH BEST IN SHOW: Mr S & Mrs P Mottershaw & Mrs F Officer - Ir Ch Ulmarra Naa (Jun.ch.Jd) (Imp Ire) - Saluki. Agile smooth lithe action on this shapely, dignified male. Has a long dry head and that far away look in his oval eye. Pleased for size and balance. Each part smoothly follows into the next, with depth to brisket and length of rib, to correct cut up. Easy action.

SEVENTH BEST IN SHOW: Mrs C V Marett - Gayteckels Musical Melody: Cesky Terrier. Completed a quality line up here. Presented in excellent condition and moves with good foot placement and typical shpely form. Has length to head ending at big nose and strong jaw. Clean ach to neck. Good proportions all though.

BEST PUPPY IN SHOW: Mr P Walker: Karamouche My Little Pony for Petwalk- Chinese Crested.This bitch is just right for balance and emits a confident stylish attitude with excellent deportment as she easily covers the ground, working with handler to advantage. Balance of skull, ears low set and mobile with good carriage. Clean cheeks to tapering muzzle. Fine boned legs of good length. Good ribbing and short firm loin. Muscular quarters .Very smart.

RESERVE BEST PUPPY IN SHOW: Mrs C A Allen- Ribans Our Impressive Queen - Shetland Sheepdog. Under the clean well groomed, profuse, double coat is a well-developed body of correct proportions and muscle. She has balance of head, sweet expression and tapering muzzle with well placed teeth. Good topline, to slope of croup and continuation of tail. In this final she used the ring to display her quality.

THIRD BEST PUPPY IN SHOW: Miss C A Smithers: Tuttlebees White Venture at Meantmore - Toy Poodle. Cheeky and so typical, wherever you looked at him. 9 month male, so well put together and in super body. Appeals in head with that spark from his dark eye. Soundly constructed and firm in shape. Lively, with style on the move.

FOURTH BEST PUPPY IN SHOW: Mrs F Officer: Eeri Thanks For The Dance – Whippet. She has femininity and is balanced throughout with shape and good side gait. Dry head, reach of neck, good rib to developed loin and correct cut up. Width of rump and muscular quarters, tapered tail not carried too high.

FIFTH BEST PUPPY IN SHOW: Mrs J Rondel - Pennbeacon Virtuous Violet - Golden Retriever. In full boat and level back with tail straight off and used well. Pleased in head, well set eye, good pigmentation. Quality bone and decent feet.

BEST JUNIOR IN SHOW: Mr P Walker: Karamouche My Little Pony for Petwalk - Chinese Crested. Repeat and well deserved.

BEST VETERAN IN SHOW: Mrs C V Marett - Jsy Ch Idefix Day Break At Gayteckels Pdh - Cesky Terrier. Hard, fit in first class order .What a super male. He is typical with a grand head, good ear use and bright attentive eye. Shapely throughout. Sound, honest .Nothing to dislike here and goes with brisk action and never loses outline. Silky coat and expertly prepared.

BEST BRACE IN SHOW: Mr S & Mrs P Mottershaw & Mrs F Officer – Salukis.This pair matched for type and temperament .They worked with handler and in unison. Well presented and in good order.
