

Life's Symbology | Trading Room 5 FAQ | updated 15th Aug 2023

{AI} Artificial Intelligence | We have reference this here in Trading Room 5 which leads into Trading Room 6.

As evolution would like you to think, it has taken the main stage over creation, you may like to look deeper into who is pushing for evolution over creation of human life & why?,

Or an even better question would be to think what's in it for some and nothing for others? Why such a push and a rush?

Here in this Trading Room we will go head on into the select groups & layers of the cosmos of hidden veils within the secret societies, Organisations, Corporations, Media, Moguels, Oligarchs and your existence and what it means to those they serve.

We touch governments & governance, both local national & international. What ever comes up inside our events we discuss. Again I will remind you that this is a private event and if disruption is your intent then eviction will happen.

Q | Ask yourself who is up for the “win”

- ✓ when man does not believe in his creator?
- ✓ and starts to believe in man's interpretation of evolution more than the original creation of man?

Once you hear my personal story you will begin to understand that my life has been veiled. You could even say that my soul was sold. What I will say is that I know my own ancestors tried to trade my gifts more than trading me. Spiritually programmed & cloned are a truth of mine & this truth has been dealt with by being in a relationship of faith {knowing the creator}, not by evolution.

The past disembodied bloodline members who now reside inside the eternity of the “Celestial Lodge Above” {Pew sitting Freemasonic Lodge Members,} can not birth their secret society programs back into the bloodline ever again. My personal journey of NOT walking-life-out, but walking within-a-kingdom-life, is worthy of you getting to understand by experiencing before knowing.

Discernment is key in the supernatrual, & I will share with you the garments specific to New Zealand that this ancestor was wearing. Inside the event we will not be focused on the garment but more the purpose of the garment.

- Which temperature was this Great Uncle of mine in?
- And how many other men were sitting in that pew with him?
- And what choices did these men take in life to end up here in this place?
- And why did I get to see?

For me and all the 3-Chair positions & their language between worlds that they each produce, I will now give you content & RLS regarding the intent behind the veils of hidden pathways from trades into topics like Tarot Readings, Channeling, Angel Cards, Chinese Astrology, Egyptian Astrology, Ruins & more.

My question is to those that understand the statement., what's at the end of the unseen left hand path. & what is at the end of the right hand path? For those that have had readings what does this mean to you and your loved ones.

This also related to any level of angel card readers & customers. Even if you only self read at home for no one else but you. Knowing that the 2's in the spirit are a counterfit to the end time or the seperating of man into machine. The 2-witnesses are at play in the spirit-realms & dimensions!

Here is where the intersections or lay-line are working, I will not go to deep, but I will express to you that we do go deep in understanding for the greater impact after the fact. {Meaning homework tools}

Heaven has no intersections of pathways or abyss, no causeways and no need for bullet-proof glass. If 2nd-Chair practices & practioners say their are no veils and say no evil exists, that it's all in the mind of a person. Same with those that hear voices, then those same people making these statments either do not have permission to see past the first set of veils in the spirit-world or are hiding a satanic agenda knowingly. This also applies to many styles of therapy linked to mental illness issues, knowingly or unknowingly denying the human trichotomy, by it's 3-parts. {RLS #128}

Do not misquote me on this, again discussion, Q&A is important for contex.

Regarding the astrology & other reading trades, if anyone in your bloodline did anything like this, come and join our workshop to clear & correct the bloodline, so you understand by experience. You will also build knowledge about what these trades actually do to the soul's of a bloodline. {many modern mind illness are founded thorough SRA or stanic bloodline un-resolved issues} One of my went all the way back to the black plague that hit England, many generations back RLS#218.

Many times through the correction of a bloodline bondage or curse inside the trichotomy can also impact earths enviornment. While most defiently chnages life & lifestyle results on earth. If you are a New Age practicing reader or other modalities, & witness repeating patterns & cycles with your clients then we welcome you to bring your case files to our events. Please understand, attending our workshops as a New Age practisioner, If you are ready then we are willing to have conversations with you. Also know your intent must be a match with our T's & C's.

Now if you have had a reading or have been a reader or any other form of cosmos spirit-guide communications & have never seen the causways of hell {realms & dimsntions of hell} then come and let us share & xpose a deeper view of your own "arche" because eternity is to long to to regret a simple invite to expand your understanding. Inside this Trading Room are books & ledgers discussions for eternity purposes.

This is even more important if you have been like me and attended a event where someone has channeled an entity {ie, Abrahma Hick and others} The Book called the Secret & other content also are part of our discussion.

Knowing what has been attached to your life unknowingly through these events is a key to changing issues in the physical across the bloodline. Because there are many versions of these entities that like to mislead you & along the way they become attached to other family members through your trade's.

Who Funds the Young | When poverty hits households and a talented young family member is identified but cost are outside of parents reach, people will go to groups like Lions, Rotary, Masons type sponsorship or scholarships and never think anything other than being grateful for the kindness shown. BUT! Is there a deeper intent to the action of generosity, & if yes then what does that look like in the spirit-world? {This is one example of many}

Disclaimer | Until you hear our content you will not understand our evidence that supports our brief statement & overview in this glossary. For non-3rd-Chair people who have never had any such engagement with readings we applaud you.

However do your research into anyone in your bloodline. Because I had a mother in-law that would ring me most days and read out my astrology or birth sign from the paper or a magazine. At the time I never understood the implication in the spirit world because of my antiest or agnostic beliefs.

At that time my mother in-law initiated this & I did not dismiss it because I thought she was being interested in my life & was showing kindness. How wrong was I. This action on her behalf anchored something that I will discuss in class.

So innocently I would like to think people do this, while others do it knowingly, most have no clue of the spiritual consequences across generations they are embedding into current & future bloodlines. They are also sewing a seed into their own eternity through this action as well. This one action can bring about a massive consequence that changes what you thought your eternity would bring.

Glossary | Trading Rooms #5 | Life's Symbology

New Age Symbology | How does the 2 of wands, cups, swords, pentacles, or any other cards, be it Tarot, Angel Cards, Picture Reading or Psychometry {object, painting, photo, or jewelery reading} Oracle Objects, Treasure Box Reading, Astrology & numerology readings.

They each and many other trade form invisible {spirit-portals} opening spirit-world doors into your life while your actions also give access to those around you. How does that take you down the left hand path & closes the right hand path & why does this matter for people, knowingly or unknowingly? {Books, Ledger & Scrolls}

All cosmic trades have massive consequences and the list is so varied & woven in and across the cosmos, it's impossible to place a glossary that makes sense.

Instead we will leave the list for the 8am-Rollercoaster. Bring your Trading or your DNA trading list to this event and lets xpose, heal & seal off the open portals, or the unseen into your bloodline lives. {This ishow false altars are erected} especially over babies.

House Clearing of Negative Energy | How does the results turn out within the different options, being Chair-1 Chair-2 Chair-3 plus indiginious beliefs. From Asia to Africa to New Zealand & Australia, to USA and other native tribes and nations? From New York to London, Irish & Celtic? What is hidden that could make a difference by knowing something that is hidden in plain sight!

How & why does any of this matter in our emerging electronic world we are heading into? What does any of this have to do with cancer, depression, suicide, poverty, education, food, farming & you!

Lifestyle & Governance Symbology | poverty levels, inside a family line, across a community or township, embedded into levels of SRA. How does this get healed and who can do the healing? What can the unity of a family do to change outcomes for all or individuals under a curse, hex, vex incantation of spell? These spells look different, some could be inside relationship bondages, or look like patterns that have never been dealt with before. Because they have never been considered relevant, through false or veiled governance.

Government symbology is an important key to those that take the time to learn. Informed decisions can be made when a few private doors are swung open in the spirit for people to see truth. Remember 2020 and all the systems of distraction so destruction could take place.

In this Trading Room we need need your attention! but it's in Trading Room 6 that you will come to an even greater awareness as you learn your power & authority that changes the unthinkable of the many layers to the hidden governance we offer our FREE WILL & give away entry into our soul territory {human trichotomy}

Because of the hidden symbology veiled inside "the chambers & commerce" whom understand symbology more than most. It is through governance we give away {unknowingly} or give over the territory of the trichotomy that then is on auto pilot to self-impeach life results.

Complicated as it sounds, it's not, here your boundaries will be awakened to instant wisdom, a truth once seen you can't unsee!
