AOB

Matt Bearman explained that Professor Robert Stone was still searching for the spot on Dartmoor where two Whirlwinds crashed and has pinned it down to a particular area, this will be scanned by two drones using infra-red and visual techniques.

It was suggested that the forward cockpit section could be manufactured elsewhere to reduce cost.

Peter Smith offered to assist Gunnar in design work on the computer model of P7056. The secretary to send Peter, Gunnar's email address. This has been done.

Matt Bearman offered to help translate any technical drawings.

Ed Shepard offered to supply items for the Christmas raffle.
