What is in each unit? Each unit of maximum examination contains the verbal parts. They apply the words and idioms that you learned in the FCE Gold Plus guide and introduced you to new words and idioms. There are many exercises, including paper 3 (English) trials and puzzles for fun and grills searching words. In each section you will find several grammatical sections.

Thanks to the exercises in these sections you will be able to apply and check the grammatical concepts obtained in the FCE Gold Plus guide.

Again, there is always the possibility to apply your grammar score with 3 paper (use of English) exams and 5 tasks (speaking). In these exercises you enter your answers to the maximum test and then check it by listening to quality records.

The first certificate candidates receive oral tasks. Each section has a listening section. These sections will help you prepare for each of the four parts of Article 4 (listening). First, read the test information, then you recommend using what strategy you should use for a specific section. You perform exercises to help you implement your strategy and then the task of listening to the exam. At the same time, during the test, problems are becoming increasingly difficult, as the test proceeds between maximizing units. Each section also has a reading section. Like the listening section, they provide information about exams and strategies to be used in each of the four parts of Article 1. You perform several exercises to help you create a strategy, then perform an exam. At the end of the section of most reading is a verbal exercise for exercise, with unknown words and expressions. Like the listening sections, the reading sections are easier at the reviews level at the beginning and end of the book. At the end of each unit you will find a piece to write about. In Part 2 and Part 2 (writing) you will again learn about the types of exams you have to take and the written tasks.

You will also get a strategy to follow and then you have the opportunity to realize it using a few exercises, usually using answers. Write down your answers to these exercises to maximize the rating. Finally, you look at the task and write your answer in that task. For the first certification exam. Good luck! Chance!
