

The Forgotten Man

Lyrics copyright © 1973 Denis Lincoln and Matthew Zuckerman; music copyright © 1987 Richard Evanoff

Time 4/4 — Key Em — No capo

INTRO: Em

1. Em
You walk round in a daze
- Am
Feeling your way through the crowds
- G D C G D
You cry out but the sound around's too loud
- Em C Am
If you're looking for help, let me lend you a hand
- Cma7 / Cma9 / G D Em
Oh — you're the forgotten man

2. Nobody needs you
 You're by yourself
 Crushed under their feet
 And put out on the shelf
 If you're looking for help, let me lend you a hand
 Oh — you're the forgotten man

BRIDGE: C G
Nobody needs you

D
You're much too old

C G
No one to touch you

D
Your hands are too cold

Em (G) C
Pushed out in their grime

G D
Eaten by time

Em C Am G D C G D C (d) Em
You're too rotten to hold

3. You walk out of the city
 And onto the track
 Too tired to look forward
 And too tired to look back
 Like Moses, you're looking for the Promised Land
- Cma9 / Cma7 Cma9
But you're too late, oh —
- G D Em
You're the forgotten man

OUTRO: Em