Time 4/4 — Key A — No capo

INTRO: A A6 A A6 D D6 D D6 A A6 A A6 E

1. A A6 A A6 A A6 A A6
The baby's a crying, the young one's a trying

A A6 A A6 A A6 A A6
To do all the trouble he can

D D6 D D6 D D6 D D6
The women are moaning, the men are a groaning

D D6 D D6 A A6 A A6 A A6 A A6
It's about all a person can stand

CHORUS: E E6 E E6
Just singing my — Oh

D D6 D D6 A A6 A A6 E
My how the world can be

2. Some say they adore you while others ignore you
My how the world is cruel
They say they are for you but then they deplore you
Yes, and make you look like a fool (CHORUS)

3. Now I'm not a groaner, I'm just a young loner
'A doing the best that I can
To keep myself curled and out of the world
And to live more than when I began

CODA: E E6 E E6
Just singing my — Oh

D D6 D D6 A A6 A A6 A A6 A A6
My how the world can be

E E6 E E6 (rit.)
Just singing my oh

D D6 D D6 A A6 A A6 A A6 A7
My how the world can be

ALTERNATIVE VERSE 1:

The babies are dying, the old men are crying
It's about all a person can stand
The poor sleep in ditches, the rich getting riches
Trying to make all the money they can
