

Elementary Blues

Lyrics copyright © 1992 Matthew Zuckerman; music copyright © 1992 Richard Evanoff

Time 4/4 — Key G — Open G tuning with slide — No capo

INTRO: G G G C Bb G

1. G
I wake up in the evening
- G
I wake up at the break of day
- C
I wake up in the evening
- G
I wake up at the break of day
- D
I wake up when the sun is shining
- C G
And when it goes away

2. If you had read my letters
The ones I never sent
If you had read my letters
The ones I never sent
You would have understood me
But most things are never meant

3. It seemed so elementary
Don't put the horse behind the cart
It seemed so elementary
Don't put the horse behind the cart
I never knew how much you loved me
Till I went and broke your heart

BRIDGE: G G G Bb C
C Bb G

4. Everything I do
Just disappears into the sky
Everything I do
Just disappears into the sky
I do my best to live a good life
Sometimes I wonder why

OUTRO: G G G Bb C
